

WeLaR Webinar

From Home to Office:

The Complexities and Benefits of Remote Work

27.11.2024 | 11:00 – 13:05 CET | online

Register here

11:00	Welcome Ludivine Martin (LISER, CREM, IZA)
11:05 – 11:30	Consequences of the Expansion of Working from Home and Digitalisation on Teleworkers' Work Intensification, Well-Being and Mental Health Ludivine Martin (LISER, CREM, IZA) with Laetitia Hauret (LISER)
11:30 – 12:00	Local Labour Market Resilience: The Role of Digitalisation and Working from Home Sarra Ben Yahmed (University of East Anglia) with Francesco Berlingieri (European Commission, Joint Research Centre) and Eduard Brüll (ZEW)
12:00 – 12:30	Remote Work and Its Effects on Workplace Well-being: Results from a Norwegian panel study Espen Olsen (UiS Business School)
12:30 – 13:00	Working from Home and Skill Demand: Evidence from Germany Christina Langer (Stanford Digital Economy Lab) with Jean-Victor Alipour (Institute for Economic Research and LMU Munich)
13:00 – 13:05	Closing remarks Ludivine Martin (LISER, CREM, IZA)

Registration: <https://events.teams.microsoft.com/event/8f0f263f-6e91-4cf8-aa7e-3a2b291f0f01@70dc2727-d701-44de-8ae7-83093d271a87>